If the right to express your ideas is important to you...
then you can help fight suppression of free expression.

Freedom to Read Foundation

The battle is an important one. Today reports of attempts to censor books and information are at record highs. Any book, magazine, photograph or other material can be the target of would-be censors from the left, right or center.

Your membership in the Freedom to Read Foundation can make a difference in protecting the free flow of information and ideas—the basic principles of the First Amendment.

The Foundation is a 14-year-old organization of librarians, lawyers, educators, booksellers, authors, publishers and other concerned citizens who have joined together to safeguard the tradition of free expression in America. The Foundation provides legal and financial support to those at the frontline of censorship challenges.

Your membership in the Freedom to Read Foundation will:

- help support librarians across the nation who are beleaguered by raids on our libraries
- expand the freedom to read by offering legal and financial help in cases involving authors, publishers and booksellers
- entitle you to the Freedom to Read Foundation News, a quarterly newsletter on censorship trends, current court cases, legislative developments, and reports of successes in bouts with censors.

Books and ideas aren't dangerous . . . but information restraints on a free people are. Protect the future of the First Amendment. Join the Freedom to Read Foundation.

Yes, I want to become active in the Freedom to Read Foundation.
My membership check for $_____ is enclosed. This tax-deductible contribution entitles me to vote for Foundation trustees and to receive the quarterly Freedom to Read Foundation News.
